The Pastor's Corner

To the saints at Stone Mountain:

Over the last couple of weeks, I have been binge-watching episodes of the five seasons of In Plain Sight, on Amazon Prime Video.

The series, which ran on the USA network 2008-2012, is a drama about people being placed in the Witness Protection Program or Witness Security Program (WITSEC), in Albuquerque, NM. When persons have witnessed a crime and are marked for elimination, the US Marshalls take the persons to Albuquerque, give them a new identity, get them settled in a new residence, see that they have employment and then move on to the next case.

In a sense, you and I are in the WITSEC program. Having been transferred from the domain of Satan to the kingdom of the Son of God's love (Colossians 1:13), we receive a new name, mission, residence and status.

As we move toward Resurrection Sunday, I am rejoicing that I am not now the person I once was. Hallelujah!!!

There is an old gospel song, the refrain of which says,

*There's a new name written down in glory,
And it's mine, O yes, it's mine!
And the white robed angels sing the story,
"A sinner has come home."
For there's a new name written down in glory,
And it's mine, O yes, it's mine!
With my sins forgiven I am bound for Heaven,
Never more to roam.*

Glad the tomb is empty,

Pastor Farmer

If you are visiting today and you want to utilize one of these options, review the eGiving brochure or the posters in the lobby on these methods of giving either before or after service and make your secure contribution.

Easter Cards for Our Missionaries— This is the last time to sign the cards to let our missionaries know we are thinking about them. See table in narthex.
