The Pastor's Corner

To the Saints at Stone Mountain:

It's tax time. Oh, the agony. Oh, the drain on our pockets. Oh, the anticipation, for some, of a refund.

It would be very easy for us to complain about paying taxes. It has been said that paying taxes is one of two certain things (the other being death).

However, every time I am tempted to complain about taxes, I remember that the only way we could owe taxes is that we had an income. That income may not be as high as we would like. Nonetheless, we have an income.

This season, I shall dole out many dollars to the federal government but I only dole out what God has shoveled in!!

Glad the tomb is empty,

Pastor Farmer
